Munn, Alois I (1904738)

A letter, written by Sergeant Alois Munn, an Amsterdam boy and a friend of Sergeant Weed, to his mother, says: "I suppose you are anxious to receive this letter, letting you know how I am. We have just been through a pretty rough ordeal, and as a result there are many faces absent from the company. We went into the lines the 23d of September and on the 29th we went over the top. I won't describe what it was like. I was surprised to find myself so calm in the face of a rain of machine gun bullets and shrapnel. "I know when you see the list of casualties in the paper you will worry about your boy. There are quite a few fellows from Amsterdam killed and wounded. Mother, you remember Carl Weed of course. He used to be in my squad when I was on outpost at Fort Ann. He was instantly killed by a shell exploding right beside him. I was very sorry to learn that he had fallen for we were great friends and I was talking to him only the day before."
